

...FIFTH ANNUAL DICKSON COUNTY FAIR TO BE HELD OCTOBER 4, 5, 6 AND 7...

Union Tent-Meeting To Begin Next Sunday.

The series of meetings, which have heretofore been called attention to, and to which many of the church-going people of Dickson and surrounding community have been looking forward to with much interest, will begin Sunday morning at eleven o'clock under the large tabernacle located on the vacant lot of the M. E. Church, South, on West College Street.

Evangelist Newton S. McClurkan, of Los Angeles, California, will have the meetings in charge and will do the preaching. Dr. McClurkan needs no introduction or commendation to the large number of men, women and children of this community who attended his meetings here two years ago, and who know him personally. However, to those who have never had the opportunity of hearing this evangelist, we can earnestly recommend him as a revivalist of much power and conviction. He is a fluent speaker, has a most engaging manner and is a ripe scholar in Biblical lore, and the manner in which he presents his plea of the importance of living a higher and nobler life is such that all under the sound of his voice are touched by conviction.

Mrs. McClurkan, wife of the evangelist, who is also remembered here by many friends, is accompanying her husband on his evangelistic campaign, and will have charge of the women's and children's services. She is an able student of the Bible, a charming woman, and is deeply consecrated to her work.

The song services promise to be one of the big features of the series of meetings. The singing will be under the leadership of Mr. H. Evan McKinney, who is also engaged in Dr. McClurkan's campaign. Mr. McKinney is a young man of pleasing personality, and comes highly recommended as a singer of much talent and note, having been under the culture of some of the best musical instructors of the country. Miss Lillian Estes, also of Los Angeles, and who is known as "the Mocking Bird Whistler of the Pacific Coast," will be in the choir and will render a whistling program of sacred music. Miss Estes is a noted artist in the whistler's world, having won fame the world wide, and those who will have the opportunity of hearing her will indeed be quite fortunate.

This series of meetings will be entirely non-sectarian and non-denominational, and everybody is invited and especially urged to attend and co-operate with this corps of religious workers in helping bring Dickson to a great spiritual awakening—more powerful than she has experienced before.

FOR SALE—One $25.00 Scholarship in Draughton's Practical Business College, Nashville, Tenn. Will sell it for $20.00. Ruskin-Cave College, Ruskin, Tenn.

A Card.

To the Voters of Dickson County:
I am sorry to say to you all, that it will be impossible for me to see each and every one of you, as I have been struck down with a severe case of malarial fever. However, I hope the voters will give my case a fair consideration before they cast their vote.

I really think that I am entitled to the office for which I am seeking, as I made the race four years ago and was defeated by a small majority, and as both of my opponents have been honored with it. However, I have no stones to throw at either one of them. I consider them to be perfect gentlemen in every respect. If the voters see fit to elect me I will only ask for the office two terms, as I think that is long enough for a man to hold it.

I will say that if I am elected Sheriff of Dickson County I will use every effort to fill the office to the best of my ability, and when I go out of office I will go with clean hands and a clear conscience.

So, I will close, asking each and every voter to take my case into consideration, and on the 3rd day of August if I am your choice I will certainly appreciate your kindness. Respectfully,
G. A. WALTON.

U. D. C. Meeting.

Mrs. Ed Morrow was hostess of the July meeting of Old Hickory Chapter, U. D. C., Wednesday afternoon, July 5th. There was an unusual large attendance, with Mrs. W. H. McMurry, President, presiding.

After the business hour, Mrs. H. C. Guerin, historian, took charge of the program, which consisted of historical papers by Mesdames Leathers and McMurry, and readings by Miss Mary Walker.

During the social hour, the hostess was assisted by Mesdames J. A. Clement and Buchanan Grigsby and Mesdames Mary Walker and Margaret Morrow.

The additional guests were Mrs. Leathers and Mrs. Florence Leathers, of New Jersey; Miss Edna Spicer, of Paris; Mrs. John Stump and Miss Thelma Stump, of Ashland City, and Miss Elizabeth Herring, of Cleveland.

Mrs. Eugene Payne will be hostess of the August meeting.

Tacky Party.

Misses Bessie Scott and Hallie Walthour entertained the Glad Girls' Class and some invited guests with an old-fashioned tacky party Tuesday night at the Walthour home on McCreary Heights. The decorations of flowers, the refreshments, etc., carried out the idea in full. Old-fashioned music, games and contests made the hours slip away quite fast, and many hearty laughs were enjoyed. A "gingerbread-man," given to the tackiest person, was won by Miss Helen McCreary.

The invited guests were: Miss Katherine Minich, Nashville; Miss Anna Ladd, Humboldt; Mrs. Henry Stein, Nashville; Mrs. M. D. McCreary, Miss Lorena Shawl, Miss May Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCreary.

FOR SALE—5-room residence on South Main street, now occupied by J. P. Beakley. Will sell at a bargain. See J. F. McCaul, Dickson, Tenn.

LOST—A bay mare-mule, 15 or 16 hands high; aged slightly gray around the head, and right fore-leg is a little crooked. Phone 91-W, or address Tennessee City, Tenn.—R. T. Lawrence

A Card.

To the Democrats of the Seventh Congressional District:

The Congressional committee has ordered the primary election to be held August 3rd, to nominate the democratic candidate for Congress. In entering this primary, again asking your endorsement and support, I desire to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation of the kindness you have extended to me and the honor you have conferred upon me in the past and cordially to thank you. I have endeavored to serve all of the people faithfully and well and to render unto them efficient service and to devote to the public service all of my time and ability, and I cheerfully submit to the public my record of service. I have laid aside every other business and occupation and have devoted all of my time, energy and ability to the service of my people, endeavoring to make them a faithful and efficient servant.

If I have succeeded, I ask your endorsement and a renewed expression of your confidence and support in the primary election, and in doing so, I wish to assure you that I shall gratefully appreciate your confidence and support, and in the future will continue to render to the people my best service.

I believe that my training, experience and familiarity with the work, and the position that I have attained in Congress will enable me to be of larger usefulness and render in the future more helpful public service.

My present duties in Congress are so urgent and important that I cannot neglect the duties of my office to devote my time and attention to my personal interests. We cannot tell at this time when Congress will adjourn, and I do not know whether I will have the opportunity to return to my District and meet the people personally.

I desire in this public way to express to you my gratitude and appreciation for what you have done for me in the past and to ask your support in the primary August 3rd, and to assure you that I will appreciate your help and kindness and to pledge you a continuance of the best and most efficient service I may be able to render.

Yours truly,
L. P. Padgett.

Family Reunion.

The annual family reunion of the Spann's was held on July 1st, at the home of Marshall Spann, near Charlotte. At an early hour the different members of the family began to arrive by wagon loads, bringing with them well-filled baskets and boxes of nice things to eat. At the proper hour a sumptuous dinner was served on the beautiful lawn of the Spann home, all present enjoying same very much. Music was rendered and various refreshments were served throughout the day.

There were about eighty present, and but few of this number not members of the family. The children present were: Kenney, Marion, Marshall, George, Andrew, Tom and Mrs. James Scott of Nashville. There were four generations represented. They had the pleasure of having their aged mother, Mrs. Owens, with them.

All reported a very enjoyable time. The next reunion is to be held at the home of Geo. Spann, near Charlotte.

Vote for Melvin Harris for Trustee.

Main Street Railroad Crossing to be Repaired

Mr. Templeton, Superintendent of the Nashville Division, N. C. & St. L. Ry., and Mr. John Ryan, Assistant Chief Engineer, were in Dickson Tuesday inspecting the Main Street railroad crossing, and decided to improve the crossing at once by putting in a six-foot board walk on each side of the street, and filling the centre with gravel and chert.

The City Council, at a recent meeting, appointed a committee composed of E. W. Daniel, W. H. McMurry, J. T. Holley and Pitt Henslee, to take the matter up with the Railroad officials. Mr. Henslee was appointed chairman of the committee, and he addressed a letter to Mr. John Howe Peyton, urging the importance and necessity of repairing the crossing.

Mr. Peyton immediately replied that he would have the matter investigated at once, the results of which are stated above, and it now seems certain that the much needed work on this crossing will be done at an early date.

Rook Party for Visitor.

Mrs. Ray Hugin entertained last Friday with a morning Rook party to compliment Miss Estelle Williams of Fulton, Ky., the attractive guest of Miss Katherine Grigsby, and for whom a number of interesting affairs are being planned.

Ferns and bowls of flowers were used in the decorations of the living room, dining room and large porch, where the tables were arranged.

The hostess was assisted in welcoming her guests by her sisters, Miss Katherine Grigsby and Mrs. Buchanan Grigsby. Mrs. Ed Murchison gave some choice selections on the Victrola. After the game, in which Mrs. Watt Carter was highest scorer, a delightful two-course menu was served on the card tables.

Those present were: Misses Estelle Williams, of Fulton, Ky.; Edwene Grigsby, of Cumberland City; Katherine Grigsby, Christine Hunt, Glenn Leech, Bess Dandridge, of Nashville; Eleanor Walker, of Centerville, Edith Badge, Edna Spicer, of Paris; Florence Leathers, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Annie Mai Liggett, Mesdames Will Hugin, Harry Hopkins, Otis Clark, Joe B. Weems, Watt Carter, Eugene Payne, Will Meadow, Lester Rogers, Ed Murchison and Buchanan Grigsby.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met Monday afternoon, the president, Mrs. Etta Davis, presiding. After a song and prayer was had the 4th chapter of Nehemiah was read. The topic for study was "Contentment and Ambition." Each one present gave scripture references on the topic. Then, "Missions" was discussed by Mesdames Jackson and Thomas and Miss Gatewood. The mission study contest was an interesting feature of the program. One new member was added.

The old A. Myatt store building on South Main Street is being torn down this week. The lumber in this building, which is practically all high-grade yellow poplar, has been purchased by W. L. Jones, who will build a residence with same on his farm south of town.

Don't forget that G. R. Russell will appreciate your vote for Trustee.
